20 Apr 53: "It is 11:30 pm and we have been listening to the VOA, with daylight saving, the only good newscast of the day (our 11 pm). It is a shame they don't see fit to put on more English language broadcasts as I believe, since I came down here, that mandarin does not reach a great many in South China. I believe English will reach more. Half the program in English tonight was jammed, but not enough to block it out. Programs in Russian are very heavily jammed."
